STEP 1

Use a clear, flat, soft surface to avoid bumps or scratches.

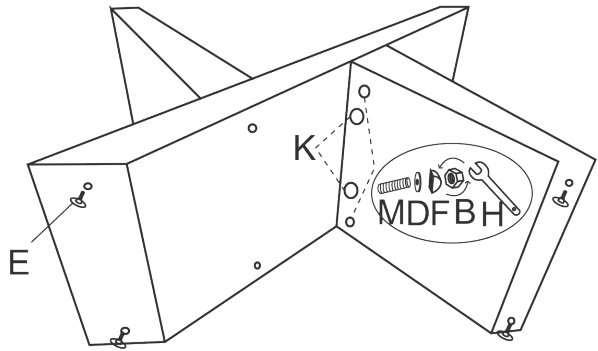

First, connect leg [3] to large leg piece [4] - make sure you select the correct small leg piece to start with, here - they are in labelled boxes. Connect using wooden dowels [C] and threaded rod [I] followed by Washer [D] then Nut [B] and tighten with spanner [G]. Pop stickers [J] over the holes on the other side of leg piece [4], as per diagram.

Then, insert wooden dowels [C] and threaded rods [I] into the holes on leg piece [4] ready for the next leg to be attached.

STEP 2

Attach leg piece [2] to leg piece [4]. Tighten and secure into place by inserting threaded bolt [I] into holes indicated on diagram, followed by washer [D], then part [F] and then nut [B]. Tighten with wrench [H].

Attach the feet [E] to the bottom on leg pieces [4] and [2].

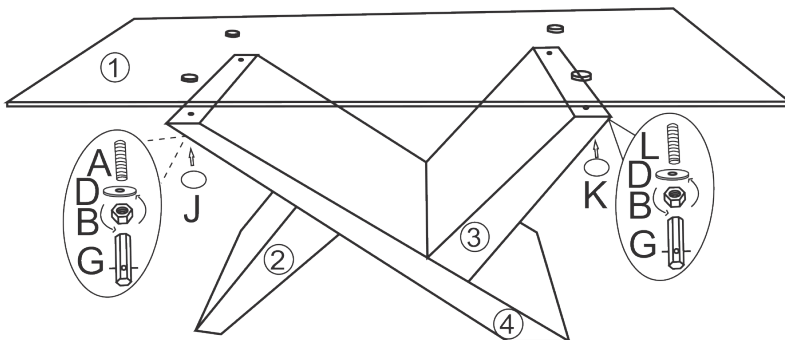

STEP 3

Carefully, and with help, flip your table correct side up, so it sits on its legs.

Next, carefully align the table top so that the metal discs align with the holes in the tops of leg pieces [4] and [3].

Fix table top to table by inserting threaded rod [A] into the holes in the leg pieces and screwing into the metal discs of the table top. Follow threaded rod [A] with washer [D] then nut [B] and tighten with spanner [G].

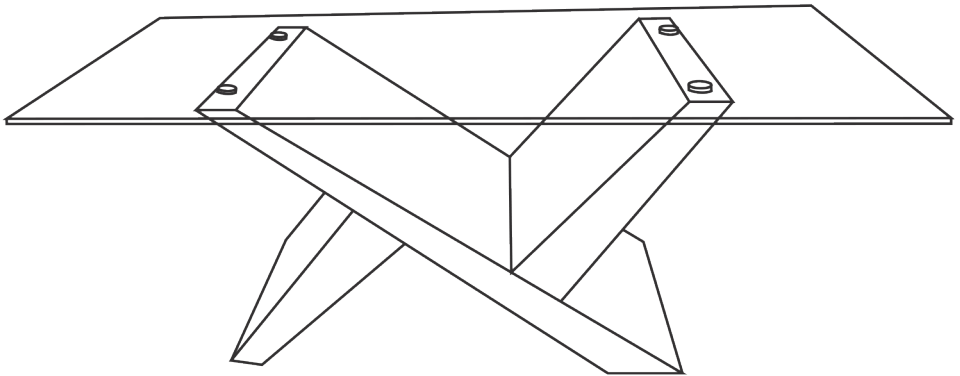

Ensure each metal disc of the table top is securely fixed to the leg pieces.

STEP 4

Check stability. Your table is now ready to use.
